

BRIEFLETS.

—Last day before Lent.
—Ash Wednesday to-morrow.
—The Glee Club entertain the public to-morrow night.

—Rev. Mr. Sawin, lectures at Albion to-morrow night.
—Mr. Robbins is in a fair condition to-day, with but little change from yesterday.

—Special meetings at Court Street church and the First Methodist church to-night.

—About 250 tickets have already been sold for the Glee Club entertainment to-night.

—George Gish was in the city yesterday. He is now on the road as fireman, his run being between Milwaukee and Chicago.

—Rev. W. P. Stowe has gone to Cincinnati to attend a meeting of the Methodist publishing committee, of which he is a member.

—One tramp, giving his name as Ross, was sheltered at the jail last night and was this morning given permission to stay there twenty days.

—Some one on the hill fired off a revolver last night in a mysterious sort of a way. No corpse was found in the vicinity of the shooting.

—O. H. Fethers, and Stanley B. Smith, have gone to Fond du Lac to attend the meeting of the Knights of Pythias, and take plates at the big banquet.

—Miss Minnie Guernsey has decided to give her readings next Monday evening at the Opera house instead of Tuesday evening. The programme will be announced hereafter.

—The Edgerton Reporter announces an Odd Fellows dance there on the 10th inst., and says: "The sample statement that Harry Anderson will furnish the music is an evidence that a good time will be had."

—Forbes' Dramatic Company are to give "Black Diamonds" at Myers' Opera house on the 27th inst., and Uncle Tom's Cabin at the matinee on the afternoon of the 28th, and on the evening of that day will give "Our Boarding House." Forbes will draw big here.

—A portion of the ice in Nash's refrigerator warehouse has been removed, and although the whole thing is a sad wreck, it is proposed to go right ahead, and make it a success in spite of present discouragements. Young Nash has got too much pluck to give up. All hope that great success will crown the next attempt.

—Mr. Welcher, Superintendent of the State fisheries, was in the city to-day, and left at Heimstreet's drugstore some brook trout, California salmon, Mackinaw trout, and California banded minnows, which Mr. Heimstreet placed in an aquarium, where they sport about in the water in lively shape. Any and all who delight in beautiful fish should step into Heimstreet's and take a look at them.

—Prof. Rickwood, of Whitewater, gave last evening one of the best lectures of the season. His subject—"The Shakespearean Trio" was one in which many in the audience were deeply interested, as the Mutual Improvement Club, under whose auspices the lecturer appeared, have been devoting much time to Shakespearean study. The lecturer graphically outlined and analyzed the characters of Romeo, Mark Antony and Hamlet, and strengthened his point, and added much interest to the evening by reading in an admirable manner a number of selections. It was a lecture which was worthy of a large and attentive audience.

—The funeral services of the late Mrs. Williams were held yesterday afternoon at a large number of the friends who deeply sympathize with those so sadly bereaved. Rev. Mr. Sanderson conducted the service assisted by Rev. Mr. MacLean. A quartet consisting of Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Moseley, Mr. D. D. Bennett and Mr. John Wingate, sang by request of the friends, "Beloved it is well" and "Asleep in Jesus." At the cemetery the usual short service was held and the choir rendered most touchingly "Sweet rest in Heaven." Thus was laid to rest her whom many will mourn and all will miss.

FURTHER HONORS.

Miss Guernsey while on her homeward trip from Boston stopped at Erie, Pa., for an evening, and gave some readings there. The Morning Dispatch of that city gives her a long and complimentary notice in which it says among other happy things: "That part of the programme which received the most rapturous applause from the audience were the impersonations by Miss Minerva Guernsey. Miss Guernsey has complete mastery of her audience and readily moves them to laughter or to tears. Her voice shows finished culture, and has a wide compass—both a chief charm in her representations is a face, mobile, that mirrors every sentiment of the passage and gains the sympathy of her listeners."

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY FRANKLIN & EMMONS, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 28 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m., to-day at 25 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 21 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m., at 37 degrees above. Clear.
The indications to-day are slightly warmer, and partly cloudy weather during the day, south to west winds and falling barometer, followed during the night by colder northerly to westerly winds, rising barometer, and areas of light snow.

THE GRAND HOTEL.

The Gathering there and the Banquet Which Marked the Opening Party.

The Grand Hotel appeared at its best last evening on the occasion of the opening party and banquet. The hotel in its everyday adornments and furnishings is very attractive, but last evening its beauty was still furthered by floral decorations, and brilliantly lighted presented a most pleasing appearance. The guests were received cordially by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Salsman and Miss Nellie Salsman, and the arrangements for caring for them had been so carefully prepared and were so skillfully executed, that all who participated in the occasion were even happily surprised, though their previous expectations had been placed high. The parlors were decorated very tastefully, and there was a profusion of exquisite cut flowers, adorning every niche and corner. Here the guests exchanged greetings and indulged in social chatting, and all seemed gay, but the banquet was the marked feature of the evening. The tables were graced by the most tempting and skillful art of the caterer. The pyramids of fruit, the cut flowers, the unique and pleasing arrangement of all the details, gave a princely look to all, but it was but a fit forerunner of the more substantial and satisfying array of edibles and delicacies which were served to the seated guests. All admit that it was the most elaborate and best served banquet ever given in this city, which is praise enough.

There was nothing lacking on the part of Mr. Salsman, his family and employees, in their attention to those there assembled, and all the arrangements moved off most happily and successfully. It was to be regretted that Governor Smith could not be present. The following telegram received from him sufficiently explains the reason of his absence:

To Mr. T. J. Salsman:

MADISON, Feb. 9.—Public business and sickness in my family compel me to forego the pleasure of attending the banquet this evening. Heartily congratulations to yourself and cordial greetings to friends at festive board. WM. E. SMITH.

After the banquet those who delighted in the dance were given ample opportunity for this, while Anderson's band furnished most enjoyable music, and like the other features of the gathering, it was heartily enjoyed by those who joined. In fact all pertaining to the gathering last evening bespoke Mr. Salsman's skill as a host.

Among those present last evening were: Capt. S. J. M. Putnam and daughter; Mr. Wm. Cannon; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Foote; Mr. and Mrs. E. Leavitt; Mr. R. L. Colvin and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Carle; Mrs. Lord; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vaukirk; Mr. C. Smith and niece; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moseley; Miss Julia Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dutton; Mr. S. A. Gowdy and sister; Mr. Charles S. Cleland and sister; Mr. J. W. Carpenter and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. P. Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cook; Dr. and Mrs. Palmer; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ransom; Mr. B. H. Atwater; Mr. Romaine Goldredge; Miss Edna Withington; Mr. R. Gostwick; Miss Hattie Lippin; Mrs. Ingersoll; Mr. A. H. Baxter; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Croft; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Notbom and son; Mr. T. Croft; Mr. C. A. Potter and daughter; Mrs. I. Rogers; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Heimstreet; Mr. Chas. F. Glass; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doe; Mr. A. P. Lovejoy; Miss Clara Barker; Mr. E. C. Notbom; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carle; Mr. and Mrs. D. Jeffries; Mr. David Jeffries and Miss Jennie Jeffries; of Rock; Mr. T. M. Jeffries; Mrs. Tilden; Miss Fannie Ray; Miss Susie Jeffries; Mr. Malcolm Jeffries; Mr. E. B. Piche; of Boston; Mr. W. J. Rea; of Rockford; Mr. J. Kersell; of Milwaukee; Mr. C. M. Corcoran; of Beloit; Mr. W. H. Chesbro; of Chicago.

OBSERVING LENT.

To-morrow is Ash Wednesday, and the opening of the Lenten season. It will be generally observed as for years past, the following being an outline of the various services:

AT CHRIST CHURCH.

To-morrow there will be services at 10:45 a. m., and at 4 o'clock p. m. On other Wednesdays during Lent there will be services at noon and at 4 o'clock p. m., and on Fridays there will be noon services and service with lecture at 7:30 p. m. The Bishop expects to visit the parish May 2, and those who may be thinking of confirmation are requested to give their names to the rector as soon as they can.

AT TRINITY CHURCH.

To-morrow being Ash Wednesday, the services will be: Full morning service and sermon at 10:30 o'clock; evening prayer and lecture at 7 o'clock. Hereafter, services will be as follows: Wednesdays and Fridays, noon Litany service, and evening service with lecture at 7 o'clock. There will be a short form of prayer on Thursday and Saturday evenings at 7 o'clock, followed by the classes noticed by the rector.

Please cut this notice out for reference—You who are interested.
From the Sturgis, Michigan, Weekly: Mr. John Brast, living in Sherman township, informed us a few days ago that his feet had been so terribly frost bitten that he could hardly stand the pains caused thereby. He happened to think of St. Jacobs Oil, which he always keeps handy—rubbed his feet twice with the remedy, and the pain disappeared entirely. He not only values St. Jacobs Oil as an unexcelled remedy for a great many other painful diseases, to which mankind is subject, but he also says that it is really invaluable for the many diseases horses and stock are subject to, and which so often play havoc with the prospects of the farmer and stock raiser.

A BUSY PLACE.

Atwater's tobacco warehouse is one of the busiest places in the city now. As one enters there greets the eye a mammoth pile of cases, piled one upon another, till one gets almost dizzy looking to the top, and it seems as if it were an endless task to open each of these, handle every leaf, assort and repack, and get ready for shipping, but there are a hundred pairs of hands busy, and the work is being pushed with a vim, so that nearly a hundred cases a week are being handled. Mr. Atwater has had years of experience in the business and knows just how to run it, and finds in his son an able assistant to take charge during his absence. The warehouse is most conveniently arranged for holding a large amount of tobacco and doing it easily, and the greatest care is shown in having the work well done. The busy times at the warehouse will keep up probably for ten weeks longer, and next season there will be a greater rush than this year. It is bound to be one of the big enterprises of the city, and has already got a strong hold, though this is the first season. There has been no loud flourish of triumphs, and the business in its present hands, needs none. This warehouse proves not only a great accommodation to those already engaged in raising, but will prove an incentive to others, so that another year, there will be a still larger amount grown and handled here.

FOOTVILLE.

—Last Saturday one of the oldest settlers of this vicinity died at the residence of his son, George Heimolt. The funeral services were held at the Methodist church of this place, and were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Lincoln, from Brodhead. Mr. Heimolt was not sick a week.
—Mr. Hall is able to be up again.
—Mr. Alfred Gray is again around, having been sick a few days.
—Singing school is in fine progression under the management of F. M. Dunn.
—We learn that "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the moral drama, will be played in Footville on the evenings of February 13 and 15. Admission, adults, 25 cents. Children 15 cents. Reserved seats for sale at the postoffice for 35 cents.
—The oyster supper by the S. of T. No. 92, of Spring Valley, was very well attended considering the weather of last Wednesday evening. A few fitting but unprepared remarks were spoken by Elder Gifford, and some singing, after which preparations were made for a bountiful supper, served in the basement of the church, which is used for the Division of that order.

GOOD EVIDENCE.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Rankin, Prof. Green, Dr. Barrow, Col. John K. McClesney, E. W. Neff, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.
